

SAFE SCHOOL SERIES 2005 - 2006

Six 2-Hour Mini-Courses

Orange County Department of Education

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Coffee, tea and fruit will be available.

$15 per course or $60 for the entire series!

Wednesday
September 14
Room D1005

NIMS FOR DUMMIES

What is NIMS (National Incident Management System)? Is it different from SEMS (Standardized Emergency Management System)? Is it the same as ICS (Incident Command System)? What does it mean to me at my school? This two-hour course will clarify your responsibility to become NIMS compliant.

Friday
October 14
Room D1002

HOW TO WRITE A SAFE SCHOOL PLAN

AB187 mandates that each school shall submit a Safe School Plan for public review by March 1st of each year. This course will actively initiate the drafting of this important document.

Tuesday
November 15
Room A1011-12

HAZARD ANALYSIS AND OTHER SCARY STUFF

The Department of Homeland Security recommends that schools conduct a local hazard analysis and plan for the worst. This course will offer direction and development of this document.

Tuesday
January 17
Room D1003

TROUBLE IN THE HOOD - POLICE INITIATED LOCKDOWN

Lockdown procedures (shelter-in-place) are often a result of police activity in the school neighborhood. This course will offer best-practice procedures for all types of lockdowns.

Tuesday
February 21
Room D1004-05

WHEN DEATH COMES TO SCHOOL

One of the most disruptive incidents that impact a school is the sudden and unexpected death of a student or staff member. This course will offer best-practice in Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM).

Thursday
March 16
Room D1001

SUICIDE RESPONSE

Prevention strategies support educators in the identification of suicidal indicators. Despite best intentions, teen suicide continues to impact our schools. This course will address a comprehensive response to suicide in the school setting.

Space is limited.

There are two registration options:

- 1) $15 per single course; refundable if cancelled within 48 hours; or,
- 2) $60 for entire series; refundable if cancelled before September 14, 2005 (no refunds for courses not attended that are purchased in a series).
